

How to Access the Online Databases

Go to www.haldaneschool.org and click on Schools → Library

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the Haldane Central School District website. The bar is dark blue and contains the following elements from left to right: the Haldane logo (a stylized 'H' with a sun and a building), the text 'HALDANE Central School District', and four navigation links: 'Schools', 'District', 'Board of Education', and 'Community'. The 'Schools' link is underlined with a white horizontal line. Below the navigation bar, there is a large, semi-transparent image of a school building. Overlaid on this image is a list of links: 'Elementary School', 'Athletics', 'Middle School', 'Arts', 'High School', and 'Library'. The 'Library' link is highlighted with a blue arrow pointing to it from the bottom right. Another blue arrow points to the 'Schools' link in the navigation bar from the top left.

Choose the database you want

N (1)

NEWS \(GALE ONEFILE\) NOVELNY

Access to more than 2,300 major U.S. regional, national, and local newspapers.

O (1)

OPPOSING VIEWPOINTS \(GALE IN CONTEXT\) NOVELNY

Opposing Viewpoints in Context helps students research, analyze, and organize a broad variety of data, complete writing as for debates, and create presentations. Included are pro/con viewpoint essays, topic overviews, primary sources, biographies, magazine articles, statistical tables, charts, graphs, podcasts, including weekly presidential addresses and premier NPR pro and state curriculum standards, correlated to the content. Educators may search and identify material by grade and discipline.

PROQUEST \(MULTIPLE DATABASES\)

Contains comprehensive index and coverage of 7500+ magazines and major U.S. and international newspapers. Includes Newsday, 2003-present day. Translate contents into 18 languages, and find audio and video clips, books, conference papers, dissertations and theses, historical newspapers in addition to the magazines and newspapers.
